“ I have many memories of Pete that ate near and dear my heart! I grew up in your house and he was always there! Spaghetti Carbanara, eating his Total cereal, him driving us around in his sunbird with his DPD hat on...and especially when he went through his surgery. Below is a picture we took after his surgery where he was into cowboy/country stuff! My mom and I got him a western shirt..and I remember how much he loved it!! Pete conquered so many obstacles... A true marine through and through, tough as nails, strong and brave. You will truly be missed. Thank you for providing me with a second family!

“ To all of the O'Rourke family members I send my deepest condolences and prayers. Many, many childhood memories growing up with all of you when we lived down the street from each other. Rest in peace "Pinky" as that will always be the name I will remember him by, fondly. So sorry for your loss.

Last night I had a vivid dream of Peter (Pinky) O'Rourke. He was young and fun loving and full of life. I had to search his name and found his obituary. I am sorry for the loss of those who love him. I will say a prayer for him especially during the month of November when we Catholics remember our deceased friends and family.

I knew Peter from Holy Name of Jesus grade school in Detroit. His school photos posted are the ones I had many years ago. I never knew what happened to him and when I read he was a policeman and a marine I smiled. You see Peter had a bit of prankster in him. He would also take a challenge with no fear. But always, always had an impish smile and fun was in store when he was around. All in all he was a good boy to be around.

Rest In Peace in our God who loves you!

“ Our family moved next door to the O'Rourke family in NE Detroit in the early 60s. Pete and his brother Michael were a bit older than we Eddy siblings, but I remember his sense of fun, watching him play football in the street with his friends, and my mom making cinnamon rolls for him when he came home on leave from the Marine Corps.

Condolences to the O'Rourke family and all who knew and loved Pete. Rest in peace, Marine. May faith and loving memories bring comfort to your family.
