“ Our family has so many fond memories of Phil through the years. Phil was Rick's best buddy growing up. He always talks of staying at the Kulasa house and summers at the farm. Phil was always willing to help Rick in his sometimes crazy plans. I have had the pleasure of knowing Phil for 36 years. The early years involved many fun pot luck parties for holidays. We spent many festive New Years Eve celebrations at Bob and Phil's house. We were fortunate to have him come with us on two RV trips. The kids will always remember our fun on these trips to the Grand Canyon and to Disney World. I know he enjoyed these trips especially me helping him drive and when he was picked to be a participant on the Lion King show. We are all so sorry for your loss. Phil will be forever in our prayers and in our hearts. Sincere sympathy from Cathy, Rick, Julie, Amy, Lindsey and Kristie
