

Phyllis F. DeLang

March 18, 1936 - January 25, 2013

Phyllis F. DeLang of Shelby Township, passed away on January 25, 2013, at the age of 76, in Clinton Township. She was born on March 18, 1936 in Kalamazoo. Dear daughter of the late Kenneth and Thelma (nee Woolcott) James. Loving wife of 54 years of the late Jack DeLang. Dear mother of Jim (Lori), Mike (Tricia) and Dave (Nancy) DeLang. Loving grandmother of Zack, Nick, Marissa, John, Veronica and Matt. Dear sister of the late Malcolm D. James. Phyllis grew up in Central Lake, Michigan and attended Michigan State University where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Nursing in 1958. Shortly after settling in Warren in 1960, Phyllis chose to remain home and raise her family, and was proud that her three sons all also became Spartans. She was dedicated to her husband Jack, supporting him during his successful career as a business owner, and lovingly caring for him when he became ill during their retirement. Above all, Phyllis loved to be at her home, first in Warren, and then later in Shelby Township. She was an avid reader. Phyllis also loved to visit with her children and grandchildren, and looked forward in particular to hosting family gatherings. She generously supported many charities. Memorial contributions honoring Phyllis may be made to the American Lung Association, www.americanlungassociation.org.

To Jim Mike and Dave, I spent many hours in your living room on Newport talking and laughing with your parents. They sure loved to laugh and truly enjoyed life. Jim we saw Disco Demolition night in Chicago live in your living room back in 79.
