“ Aunt Debby, Eric, and Jill.. Im so sorry for your loss. Ralph was an amazing person. I feel fortunate to have known him. Whenever I'd see him he'd always yell "HEY BRAT!" to me. He took me on my very first four wheeler ride, and I remember back in the day when you lived in St. clair shores, we'd be in the pool and he'd splash around me and eric until the pool was half empty. He was like a big kid which made it fun to be around him and I felt a sort of bond with him. Aunt debby, I dont think it would be possible for you to have found a better fit for you. He was more than an uncle, he was a friend to me. Eric and Jill, I know how hard it is to lose a dad.. I just want to let all of you know how much I love you and how truly sorry I am for your loss. Even though he was only 50, he was still young and that saying is true, The good really do die young. I love you.##imported-begin##Amber Mills##imported-end##

“ Ralph,

Woke up this morning & am numb. I just can't believe I won't ever be able to reach over and snuggle with you or kiss you good morning. I don't know what I am going to do. Everybody says memories will keep you alive in my heart, which they will, but that is not good enough for me. I am so used to everyday life with you. Weekdays were usually just work, eat, talk, couple chores, or maybe a quick moment of fun and then bed cause your ride in is so far at 5am. But you did it everyday cause you loved it here and was so proud of what we have here. Maybe you did it cause me and Eric, I dont know. But thanks for moving us here to the country. The last 4 seasons have been a fun experience here. Your "Boy Moo" (the cow) across the street will be missing you too. Nobody to moo at him everyday like you did when you came home. The pond fountain you just put in won't stay on now, I don't know what to do to fix it. You were going to put it on a timer to be all night cause I told you I liked sleeping to the waterfall sound. You were a very thoughtful person and sometimes we took each other for granted and forgot what all the good traits we each had. YOu loved going to Las Vegas. WE were married there and have been there several times. I was hoping we could go this October too if we could swing it. Well my love, I hope you can hear all my heart says to you every minute of every day. You are so special to me, you just never realized how much. I have been your friend since I have been 13 yrs old and the last 8 1/2 years as your girl. I am going to miss you Ralph. Please reach me if you can, somehow. I love you RB... My Ralphy Bear... “ Wow....what can I say? There are so many things running through my head right now. Ralph was an awesome man!! I will miss him dearly, but I will always remember the good times with him. I always loved his goofy ways - he could make anyone smile! I will never forget watching him ride the unicycle on Sunset...that was hilarious!!! He would come to the kids' birthday parties and be the biggest kid of all! I loved the way he would make us kids "earn" our Christmas gift....money wrapped in some outrageous way. I couldn't wait to see what crazy and clever way he came up with next. He was a father figure for me and I couldn't have asked for anyone better. He was one of the few people that could mess with me and I wouldn't start crying about it....He was Ralph and I knew that was his way of showing his love. I will miss him so much, but I know that he is with Gram and Aunt Burn, watching over us. I will miss that great laugh of his....I swear it echoed! I know how much he meant to Chatty...he agrivated the hell out of her and I know that she loved every minute of it. I just wish that they would have had more time together to really bond! We will all miss him. I love you, Ralphie!!!!##imported-begin##Barb Gerber (AKA BARBIE)##imported-end##

It's still really shocking to me that i won't see you at family things, you always brought a warmth to the room when you were in it. Everytime i see a guy on a motorcycle i have always thought of you, now i will think of you and know that you are in heaven riding for all eternity. love you ralph.

“ Dear Debbie,
Ralph was like a brother to me. He was always around growing up. When ever you seen Ralph you seen a GI Bud and his 10 speed bike. If he would wreck going around the corner, he would NOT spill a drop of Bud. Got to love the man. I can remember I was in labor with me son 31 years ago. Ralph and Ann came over to take me to the hosp. in his Black Hearst. I told Ralph I was not going in that car. He just laugh at me. I think he tried for about a hour to get me in it. “ Deb, I am so sorry for your loss. I wish there were words that I could say to ease your pain. I have always liked Ralph, he was just a goofy guy! He made me laugh a lot and we always had a lot of Ralph stories to talk about to make us laugh! He was a great person all around and he is missed by all of us! The boys remember him best while playing with the fart machine at your house on sunset, and Elaina remembered him pushing her in the swing in the backyard on Lindsey. It was always fun to answer the phone when Ralph called at the office, because he would prank us everytime!! His time here was short, but he made an impact on a lot of people, his kindness and smile superseded his intimidating look! I am glad that I had the chance to know him. I think about Ralph, you and Eric daily. He is deeply missed.##imported-begin##Julio and Rachelle##imported-end##

As I read through the previous entries my heart is touched by all the wonderful things people are saying about you. And even though this is such a horrible tragedy and loss, I am comforted in knowing that you have made all of our lives better by just knowing you and being fortunate enough to be loved by you. You have always had a special way about you with children, and as we have all become adults (or are becoming adults) we are able to really see how much you have influenced our lives. Thank you for being in my life, and thank you for letting me be a part of yours. I will always remember and love you.##imported-begin##Jill Miller##imported-end##

“ Ralph was always such a great friend I didn't realize how many funny stories we had. Ralph could always liven things up, if it was too quiet he'd let out a loud obnoxious laugh and get everyone laughing. “ Ralph you were the best dad ever, even though you were my step dad i thought of you as my real dad because youve been there for me for more then half my life. You were always the life of the party you always made me and every body laugh. When ever my friends came over you would mess with them and make em laugh and they all told me you were funny and liked you and you were like a uncle to jon because he always came over and you treated him like family and that made him feel really good and half the time when he came over he hung out with you more then he hung out with me :) we always did stuff together you even let me get a dirtbike and gave up time to teach me how to ride that and the 4 wheeler and now dirtbiking is a good hobby of mine thank you. you also got me hooked on mountain dew thanks alot :) i remember when i first learned how to drive a car you tought me and jon in the backyard in sunset with your alluminum . We would have the biggest bon fires in warren, you didnt care as long as other people were having a good time. i learned from you to not throw cans away or in the fire because they were worth 10 cents, it really adds up with 6 months worth of empties, we looked crazy with 3 carts full and mom would hurry up and get away from us because we looked ridiculous with that many cans but hey we got $100 dollars or so out of it. im really gonna miss you getting in my way in the hallway and not moving to annoy me. or your burps that smelled like beer and pickles for some reason these are just some of the memmories with the GREAT life with you, but my last memorie with you was last week when i helped you get the tire back on the tractor and we were "bonding" as mom would say lol. well ima miss you , we all are even jack and hairball. please look over me and mom we really need it i love you , mom loves you and so does everybody else, ill see you again some day - pile###imported-begin##ERIC aka PILE##imported-end##

“ I don't think I can find the words to express the ache in my heart caused by losing Ralph. I always introduced Ralph as "my cousin, my favorite person in the whole world". When Jughead died, Ralph stepped in and became like a brother to me. Those that didn't know him may have feared him; all that knew him loved him. Ralph was tough, strong, gentle and sweet. I will miss his smile and bear hugs.
I am here for you Debbie, Sandy, Sue and Patty if there is anything I can do for you. I love all of you.

“Ralph was many things to many people. He was a huge influence in many of our lives. He was full of funny stories & goofy pranks. He was always the life of the party. Ralph was someone who was loved by anyone who really knew him. Even though he didn't look like it, he really was a big teddy bear if you were lucky enough to be on his good side!! His family and friends were very important to him.

I have known Ralph my entire life and there will never be another person who will touch my heart & influence my life as much as he has. He is the only person who was constantly on both sides of my family. When my Uncle Carl passed away he stepped in to fill that void the best that he could for my Mom & my Aunt's. He was also my Dad's close friend & my Aunt Ann's first "true love". He also stood up in my parent's wedding. On the weekends that he had Angie, my Dad usually had me and they would spend their time with us together. He was one of my favorite people in this entire world. He will be truly missed more than he will ever know.

He influenced many of our lives & taught us all many things. A few things that he taught me are that family is always first, don't take shit from anyone, Harley's are the only "real" bikes & Budweiser is the only "real" beer. I didn't really get to spend a lot of time with Ralph in the last few years because our lives are busy and that's just how things are. But I do know that without him, the world will never be the same. But I will never forget him and I am thankful for the 27 years that I got to spend with him. I think that he would want us to celebrate his life by remembering all of the great times we each shared with him. And who could ever forget Bud Man!!!

“ Whenever I think of you I think of your sweet, kind and loving smile. You had a certain twinkle in your eyes that I loved. We didn't see each other often but when we did we could feel the love we had for each other. You were my other sweet teddy bear. George always liked the talks the two of you did while "tailgating" at family functions.

The two of you thought so much alike. Debbie, I can't even imagine what you are going through. You two were so right for each other. You will always be in our prayers and remain in our thoughts and heart.##imported-begin##George and Lynn##imported-end##

“ We really got close to Ralph after he & Deb bought their dream home right by us on Lindsey. The four of us would hang out quite a bit on the weekends usually sitting around a bonfire. One night Ralph put a frog in the back of our pick up and the darn thing lived a few weeks before I discovered it. :-) He always made us laugh, feel safe & protected when we went anywhere. He was like our gentle giant. Ralph had one of the biggest hearts, always going out of his way to offer his help with anything. Deb and Ralph even made it out to Vegas with us when we got married. That really made our special occasion even more special and meaningful. We will NEVER forget that or him.

Ralph, you were one of the best!!!!!!

“ I have so many good memories of Ralph from when I was a little girl. He always wanted my brother and I to grow up and do the right thing. Well he would proud of us now and he will greatly missed. God bless your family.##imported-begin##Belinda Creason##imported-end##

“ Ralph, You were always my big teddy bear. You were like Timmy's hero when you taught him how to ride his dirt bike. Cody was just warming up to you and now will never know what a great uncle you were. You accepted Tim like he was always a part of our family and I want to thank you for that. I will miss you so much, our family will never feel complete now with you gone. I love you & miss you so much already. Patty##imported-begin##PATTY CAIRNS##imported-end##
