“ First, let me say, I didn't know Ralph J. Geromette, but I know how it feels to lose a love in death. You never forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics and gatherings with them. There is hope of seeing our love ones again. At Isaiah 26:19 says, " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the Earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news. Wouldn't to say . Please read it in your Bible. Laurie

“ My name is Al Sophiea. Back in the early 80's, while a full time college student (and then later law school), I worked at the Elias Brothers Big Boy world headquarters in Warren Mi. I began as a security guard and later became a truck driver. Ralph Geromette was the plant manager during my years there. He was such a well liked and competent leader. His job carried tremendous responsibility as he oversaw hundreds of employees and many different departments. He was funny, kind and smart and was a great inspiration to so many people who worked there. His brothers Bob and Gerald also worked there and were also great guys.

So sorry to hear about his passing. He was a good man. My deepest condolences to his family.
