“ I loved hearing Uncle Ralph's hunting and fishing stories as well as about his time in the Army, and he always enjoyed listening to me talk about my own military career. Uncle Ralph was a true hard-working family man, he held the best pool parties and Christmas Day get-togethers I ever had the pleasure of attending, he had a heart of gold, and man... could he hit a softball a country mile. God bless him and keep him always. We will meet again someday, I'm sure.

“ We had the best soccer discussions. He loved hearing about practices and games. He always asked about the other kids that he knew on the team. I'm glad I could bring soccer to him when he couldn't go watch. Rest In Peace Ralph, I know you'll be cheering from above.
