“ I remember Mr. Winarski back in the 80s when I'd visit David we would sit around and check out his movie collection which he had in alphabetical order and cataloged in a three ring binder.

I always thought Mr. Winarski had the coolest job Creating Life-size cars out of clay how cool is that!

My thoughts are with David and all the siblings and of course Mrs. Winarski. Losing a father and a husband is never easy. I should know I lost my father recently. It's a void that never goes away may he dance in your thoughts and dreams for the rest of your days.
