“ Dear Bob, Nancy and Family
Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you. I found this poem very comforting, when I lost my father.

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

*Don't think of him as gone away--his journey's just begun; life holds so many facets--this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know, today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...for nothing loved is ever lost--and he was loved so much.

“ I always rememeber that Christmas day in 1999, when I drove everyone to the airport. Bob's Dad was so funny, and he was so excited to go to Florida. That is what I will always think of him, smiling and laughing. We wish we could be there but know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. And always smile and laugh just like your Dad. “ Dear family,

We are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers. Bob, your Dad received the ultimate Christmas gift this year -- and now we ask for strength as all of you face this new life without his presence.

Know that all the best things remain with you -- forever he will be with all of you -- and the best part is that he no longer suffers.

He was a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather and great-grandpa!

We love you all very much -- and though we are unable to be there in person, when you sense that much needed hug, it's from us.

“ Dear Nancy and Bob:

We were so sorry to hear of the passing of your Dad. Losing a parent is such a hard thing to endure. We must rely on our trust in God and know that his decisions are always the right ones. Your Dad is at peace, no more suffering and his resting in his maker's arms.

Give our condolences to your Mom and all the family. We will touch base when you return.

Fondest Regards,
