“ I was having a very difficult time taking care of my mom and I shared this with Monica who shared it with her dad. About a week later I received the most beautiful card with touching and sincere words of encouragement from Raoul. It made such an impression on me and it helped me get through that very tough time. I had only met him once and that gesture made a huge impression on me. I loved him for it . May he rest in peace, and send more Angels like him.
