“ Our deepest sympathies to the Brock family. So sorry for your loss. Uncle Ray was fun and he and aunt Marion were always around to help Harold and Rosemary when they were in need. He was the last holdout of my parents generation. They're all together now in heaven.

“ I have a couple from so many that stand out.

The first was watching him try to get up on water skis. He was so strong you could almost feel him pulling on the boat. But once he got up, he was pretty good on skis.

The other ideas his involvement with the All C's softball team. Between Uncle Ray, Uncle Bobby and my Dad, they made it pretty fun. Had my disagreements with Uncle Ray, but after the game was over, it was all smiles.

Will keep those two with me for a long time.

“ 2013 my daughter Alexa graduated from high school. Uncle Ray and aunt Marion attended her graduation party and couldn't stop with the admiration of us raising our family on the shores of anchor bay! Aunt Marion brought home made cookies as did aunt sue. My father-in-law, uncle Ray, uncle Frank and Alexa's boyfriend at the time grandfather discussed their war era huddled in our garage of our tiny lakefront home. ThankYou for your service. Mostly your instilled faith that lives on through your loving family.
