“ My Dear Godfather,

Although we grieve for you down here on earth I know that you are with your maker now. You are free of pain and no longer have any burdens to carry. So let your spirit soar and be free, watch over us and fly with the angels. You will be missed and I loved you and will continue to let your spirit live on through me with all the special memories I had with you. You were a gentle soul and a loving uncle. I'm honored that I was your Goddaughter. May you rest in peace as you walk with God in his kingdom now. His work for you on earth was done and I'm sure He has a special place for you in Heaven.

My Dear Godmother,

Auntie Virgie, I love you and am so sorry to here about Uncle Ray. I wish I could be there to comfort you but always know that you are in my heart and in my thoughts. Just remember Uncle Ray is always with us in spirit. I will gladly make a donation to St. Jude's and Erik (my son) will be glad to hear that...he has always been a supporter of St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Love, peace and hugs,

Nancy Piorkowski

“ Diane and I had the honor of meeting Ray and developing a very special friendship with him. From the first time we visited him we were blessed. The past several months we visited him we could see his health was failing but he never let it get in the way of making our visit very special. Whether watching television with him, taking part in several interesting conversations, his wit and gentleness was always so special. I had the honor of giving both Virginia and Ray a special blessing on their anniversary several weeks ago. Ray was great therapy for Diane during our visits and she will miss those times visiting him. His faith was a big and important part of his life. His love for Virginia was so great that his face would light up whenever she walked into the room. I am sure that the words "Well done my good and faithful servant" echoed as he attained his eternal rewards. I will miss you my special friend. Deacon Mike and Diane Lang Sr

“ *Laurene and Jim,
Sorry to hear about the passing of your Father(and Father in law).
Losing a loved one is never easy, as all we are left with are the memories. Treasure those and reflect on them. Also know that there are those who have gone before him, and will be there to help show him the way.
Pease be upon Raymond Burr, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

“ *Laurene,
Losing a parent is always hard. As God welcomes your Dad into his comforting embrace, may you feel that same comforting embrace from all those around you who care about you.
By the way, I've asked my Dad (the other Raymond) to greet your Dad and show him around the new place.
Love,
Larry, Cathy, and Kids*

“ *Laurene,
So sorry to hear about your Dad. May your happy memories with him give you comfort and some peace during this difficult time.
Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
Love, Teresa, Jim, and the kids*

“ One super sweet guy and he will definitely be missed. He was a very considerate neighbor and always had a smile on his face. When we first moved into the neighborhood he came over to welcome us and there he always stood with his smiling face. He had it rough the last few years but took it with stride. I know my family and I will definitely miss him for sure. RIP Ray!!!
