“ Dear Cousins,

Our hearts are heavy at this time, but we will always remember the wonderful times we spent with Ray and bobbi. Homer is sending messages to heaven on the status of politics which he and Ray enjoyed haggling over. We love you Ray.##imported-begin##Nora and Homer Sanchez##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the Cavazos family. Ray was the first person to interview me after I applied for a position at TACOM back in 1967. Even though he had an open position in his office, he thought my long-range career would be better in another area of procurement. I took his advice and had a rewarding career until I retired in 1999. I always considered Ray a special person - because he was! Sorry for your loss and may God bless him and his family.##imported-begin##John Simon##imported-end##

“ To Ray's family - My condolences on your loss. I worked closely with Ray on a few larger projects and got to know him. I remember Ray's stories on how he put a Colonel's child through college by losing golf bets (I doubt he lost that much), being the highest graded minority at TACOM for a time, how he was going to retire on his 55th birthday (he did), etc. His retirement in 1984 didn't seem that long ago, until I realized that I'm now 55 with enough time to retire. I hope he had a fun filled retirement with the family he loved. Peace,

“ To the Family of Ray Cavazos --- My sympathy and condolences to you during this difficult time. Ray was my first Branch Chief supervisor when I began my career at TACOM in 1979. He taught me a lot about Government contracting and I consider him one of my key mentors in my career. I would see him once in while at the Selfridge golf course and he always had a smile on his face. May God Bless You and Give You Peace, Duane A.
