“ Dear Family, I just saw the obituary on the internet this morning here in Rome.
What a great man Ray is and what kindness and joy he and Rosemarie brought to our family and to my Mom, especially as she was herself preparing for death. May Ray now rest in the peace and joy of of heaven. I remember you and Ray at Mass this morning at the Carmelite Monastery in a few minutes here in Rome. Monsignor Robert Sable, Vatican City

I wish to extend my prayers and heartfelt sympathy to the Kurr family on the loss of their loved one. Ray was devoted to his faith and loving family. It was truly an honor to have known him as a loyal and dedicated member and officer with the Knights of Columbus-St Patrick Council #3129. May Ray be granted a place of happiness, light and peace in the kingdom of God, now and forever, Amen!
