

Raymond A. Sosnowski

December 21, 1937 - February 7, 2024

Raymond A. Sosnowski, age 86 of Richmond, passed away on Wednesday, February 7, 2024. Ray was born on December 21, 1937 in Hamtramck, Michigan to Alfred and Stella "Sophie" (Dubas) Sosnowski. He grew up in Hamtramck, above his father's dry cleaning and tailoring business. Ray went to Hamtramck High School and found his career of 32 1/2 years working at Chrysler in machine repair.

Ray married Juanita Coleman and had two children, Rita and Steve. After Juanita passed, he married Alice Woroski Hunter in 1987.

Ray and Alice enjoyed traveling together. They owned homes in Chesterfield, Caseville and Richmond - always on the water, for they enjoyed boating and fishing. All of the grandchildren have fond memories of fishing on the dock with Grandpa Ray.

Ray and Alice also owned a winter home in Arizona for 30 years, where they enjoyed lawn bowling and golfing together. Ray carved in wood, dabbled in painting and really enjoyed showing the classic cars he owned with both Alice and his son Steve. They shared a love for classic cars.

Ray always had a twinkle in his blue eyes and will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Loving husband of Alice for thirty-six wonderful years. Dear father of the late Rita (Jeffrey) Lada, Stephen (Cathy Williams) Sosnowski, Jill (Michael) Rumbarger, Jeff (Arlene) Hunter, and James (Marcy) Hunter. Adored grandfather of Randi, Peter, Joshua (Sara), Taylor, Dana (Ethan), Brandon (Felicia), Garrett, Jacob (Kate), Justin (Arielle), Dane, Ryan and Romario. Cherished great-grandfather of Ellis, Abel, Ezri, Roxie, Henrik, Asher, Juliette, Carrie, and Renee. Dear brother of Edward (Barbara) Sosnowski and Virginia (the late Tony) Rybicki.

“ I have been curious over the last few years if my grandfather was still alive after he cut any ties of a relationship with, my brother & I, his biological grandchildren 23 years ago after our mother passed (his daughter) He didn't make much of an effort when she was alive to begin with. The way the obituary is inflated seems that he must have turned out to be quite a miraculous guy. Would have been interesting to see that side. I know now that he will not reach out to us or his 3 great grandkids to ever reconcile a relationship.

“ I've been meaning to get on here and tell the family of Ray how sorry I am about his passing. My father in law is in memory care at The Bay. There's been times when George and I were playing cards Ray would come sit with us. He was a very nice man. He surely will be missed.
