“ Death of a loved one is never easy, you have my deepest sympathy for your great loss. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in Jehovah God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.

“ *When Jean married my father-in-law, she took on the whole Szeliga clan. Whether you called her Jean, mom, grandma, GG, or aunt, we loved her instantly and she loved us more. She often reminded us that she married dad to get more kids, grandkids, and eventually great-grandchildren. We appreciate all the kind words, thoughts and prayers you are all sending our way. We will miss her so very much, but have wonderful memories to keep in our hearts forever. Love you to heaven and back Jean.
Your loving daughter-in-law, Jeanette <3 and Tony <3*
