“ I am sad. Reggie and I were drafted into the ARMY in 1961 out of Detroit. We spent 8 weeks in basic training at Ft. Knox. Reggie and Denise would visit me and my wife when I lived in Roseville. I talked to Reggie last January 1st. I went to Detroit this past November 12, 2009 and called the phone number I had for Reg and could not get through to him. I intended to visit. I hope to visit Reggie on the other side.##imported-begin##Richard E. Civic##imported-end##

“ Reggie was a very special friend to the Clowesley family. His wife, Denise, was the flower girl for my parent's wedding 61 years ago. Her family was an extension of our family and Reg became part of that when he and Denise married. He was very kind and we have many enjoyable memories with him. And what a wonderful chef! We're very sorry to hear about his passing but look forward to the beautiful resurrection hope. Our heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Sincerely, Steve and Karen Zavislak##imported-begin##Steve and Karen Zavislak##imported-end##

“ Reg, I am really going to miss your old feisty nature and our long talks about life. As everyone knows, you had great knowledge and wisdom. I think that you will now be at peace and happy that you are finally back together with your true love, Denise. You will be greatly missed but always remembered. “ I was always honored to have you as my godfather, as well as having been named after you. I hope I can continue to live up to that distinction.
I have lost a part of me by losing you. I will miss you##imported-begin##Reginald "Reggie" Kruszka##imported-end##

“ Uncle, I'm really glad that I got to spend some time with you these last couple weeks. I learned a lot from you (especially about finances). I'm sorry you had to suffer....but I hope seeing Denise, Terry, Chris and Winston was everything you imagined it to be. I love you.##imported-begin##Laura Lewandowski##imported-end##

“ I will miss the conversations that we used to have when you would call and place your produce order. On what we would do if we both won the lottery... Your outlook on life and the lessons that you taught me will never leave me.

I will miss you Reggie... You are the star in the sky that will watch over all of us...
