“ Richard was a good man and I had the pleasure of being his gardener. I accompanied my dear friend and his daughter-in-law, Christine, a few times when she was kind enough to check on him, generously devoting her time to give him meds, dinners and company. My heart goes out to the whole family at this time.

“ I'll always remember what funny and lively guy, Dick was. When we were kids I used to love to come over to your house for the family parties. He was a good guy. I pray that he is at peace and with our heavenly Father. Love you guys.
