“ My uncle wimpy was one of the coolest cats I know. His laughter and spirit was very infectious. He will be dearly missed. Although he was always around when I was growing up when he worked with my dad at the donut shop I did not get to spend much time with him the last several years.

I have vivid memories of him pounding the dough and flipping donuts in the fryer. I also have fond memories of him dad & uncle Johnny at Jo-Ge's enjoying a cup of coffee and conversing all kinds of philosophy with Jack Reed on all kinds of matters including the gravitational pull of the moon. He would of course be eating those famous Jo-Ge cheeseburgers.

It also seemed like he changed his oil on a regular basis which I remember him doing quite often behind the donut shop.

God Bless You Uncle Wimpy. You were the Man, A very cool Cat"

Rest in peace and say hi to my Dad for me. Ron-jo Kuskowski
