“ I have known Rich and Janice since high school in the early 60s. I remember Rich at Kayo gas station,barbering(made housecalls to cut my dads hair), working at Eastland in the stockroom and always on the lookout for something to buy for Janice. They had a beautiful wedding. When I lived in Detroit I and my kids would visit and my daughter Lauren remembers Rich taking all the kids to lunch at Red Barn. Rich was a good family man and a hard worker. Many times he helped me when I needed something fixed at my home.
