“ Your Dad was the sharpest dresser and funniest older man I ever met. Sorry for the circumstance that made me not being able to attend the funeral but my family was there for you. I always liked to listen to his stories about the old neighborhood. You were blessed to have your father in your life for so long.
Love to my dearest friend###imported-begin##Stan & Marge###imported-end##

“ Dear Audrey,
I was saddened to hear about your Father's passing (and your Mother before that). My parents are both gone too. Mom in 1999 & Dad way back in 1973. My only sister passed away in 2007.
Stay strong in this sorrowful time.
It was great to see you again at the St. Hyacinth Anniversary after not seeing you for 20-some years. You're still gorgeous !
I enjoyed our good times in the mid-1960's.
Then I got stuck going to Vietnam & we split apart.
I retired in 2002. Spend many mornings at the MGM.
Hope you're staying busy.
I've thought about you often through the years and still have "Tiger"###imported-begin##Tiger###imported-end##

“ Audrey, I am so very sorry for your loss, especially at a time when you should be feeling joyous. From all I've heard, it sounds like your dad was a character and I bet he would want your daughter to have the best wedding ever. Happiness and sadness often go hand in hand and there is no bigger proof of that then now. You were a wonderful daughter who always did your best to make sure he was happy (which was no small feat!) and you have nothing to regret. I'm thinking of you and your family.##imported-begin##Stephanie Kendzierski##imported-end##

“ What can I say Mr. Romanski, Just one look at you and that smile and that head of hair brought out memories of my own father. Your stories of days gone by made me feel as though I lived them myself. You are a gentlemen and I am so glad that I had the pleasure of meeting you and that I will never forget. You are a CLASS A GUY!!! And I will miss you. Love you, Denise###imported-begin##Denise Selewski###imported-end##

“ Keep the memories close, cherish all those special moments you shared especially the ones where he mad you laugh so hard you peed your pants and that will help you get through the hard days to come. I am here always for you Audrey. He was a charmer in my eyes. And for that short period in knowing him he hooked me with that "Frank Sinatra" style and those shoes. He truly touched my heart in a way that I will not forget. Love you, Your Buddy & Friend.... Denise###imported-begin##Denise Selewski###imported-end##

“ *Dear Audrey $ family,
I can not express into words how sorry I am that Mr. Romanski has gone from us. I can truly say he was my friend. I will miss him as much as I miss my own father. My heart is broken and I will miss him. As he use to say "Black is beautiful and the check is in the mail" that was a personal joke between the two of us.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know how hard it is to lose a parent. I loved hearing all your stories about him and his antics. I will keep you and your family in my prayers as you go through this difficult time. Timing is never good for these things but being a strong Polish gentleman I know that he would still expect you to through a beautiful wedding and celebrate their joined lives to the fullest. Take care and God bless.
