“ We were saddened to hear of Rita's passing and will miss her red car driving in and out of Bachman Rd. this summer. When Bob and Rita had the old Sharkey cabin torn down in order to build their new home, they saved several pieces of knotty pine paneling with the yearly height measurements of the Sharkey/Bachman children. It was so thoughtful of Rita to save the boards for my mother, Ruth Bachman. This Oscoda summer tradition has continued with our grandchildren. Our thoughts are with your family at this difficult time.

“ I will remember always the wonderful Big Chill week-ends hosted by Rita for 30-some years. Saturday morning coffee at the kitchen table. Yes! I am so appreciative of her loving friendship, hospitality, generously provided creature comforts and sharing with me her special corner of God's earth.

Rest in peace, friend.

“ I'll never forget waking up on an old couch turned bed, which are still in her home, in the grandchild portion of the cottage. I even went as far to write stories about the cottage during school. But waking up to bacon frying and my grandmother smoking a cigarette reading the paper, will stay with me forever. I'll miss you greatly, and I apologize for the last couple of years.
