“ I am so sad to hear the news my friend and coworker of 25 years went to heaven. I have lots of memories of our coffee and taxes discussions. He loved his family.
Prayers for you all.

“ Acquaintances at DLS. Brothers in FSC. Best Buds thereafter. Whether the fish weren't biting, the putts not falling or the drives were slicing... no matter. We always seemed to find the right words to get a smile, a giggle, or a belly laugh out of each other and "almost" everyone around us. What fun we had putting things in perspective. Putting a smile on peoples faces was our calling. Thanks for the memories, my friend. Please set the tone in heaven so that when we reunite, we can pick up where we left off.

All his best stories and funniest jokes started with you, Uncle Ray. And I was just telling the kids the other day about how I managed to ride one of your bikes right into a ditch when you lived in west branch. I have no doubt you 2 would pick right back up for more good times 😊
