Robert E. Ragnoli, age 65 of Macomb passed away on August 18, 2022, after a valiant fight for 36 days, Bob's heart grew too tired and God called him home. Bob was a teamster for over 38 years, most of that time was spent driving a concrete truck for the family he loved at Nagy Ready Mix. “ Love you uncle Bob! I will miss your contagious smile and your jokes, your laughs and your sarcasm. You were such a great uncle to Alex and I. My heart hurts. I have always loved chasing those Orange "Nagy" trucks on the road to see if it were you. Now, It will be so hard! I saw THREE yesterday leaving our sub. I always loved our weekly Sunday meals. I loved when you would "try to guess what I'd say" and mock me with the "Stopppppp it's". I'm just really going to miss you. I love you!!!!

“ Oh my...there are so many memories over the years growing up. One stands out that I will never forget. Being the older brother, I tended to pick on my younger brother...it's what older brothers do. Anyway, one day I was picking on him (I think) and Bob got really mad! He really did have a temper if you pushed him too far. So when he started chasing me, I ran out the back door and he chased me around the backyard. I finally got away from him and climbed up my dad's 20 foot tall, prize peach tree to get away from Bob. (My dad loved that tree! It was even planted in the middle of the backyard) To my surprise, Bob was so mad, he climbed up the tree after me! When he got about half way up, the tree cracked at the base and we both crashed to the ground grabbing onto the tree. Needless to say, my dad was NOT happy and I got a whipping and Bob got no punishment. That's usually how it went. I would get punished and Bob would get off scott free. And the tree was toast!
