“ Rest in peace Uncle Bob. I will certainly miss the times we shared these last few summers, especially pontooning the Pictured Rocks on Lake Superior with Keith, too. Also, all the wonderful meals sitting around my kitchen table with my Dad Bill and sister Sue. Fish Frys were always fun and tasty! I admired your faith and sense of family, your personal honor was evident. I sincerely hope you are at peace with your family at your side. Say hi to Aunt Dottie and Keith for us.

“ *Hi Dad,
I miss you! Thank you for all you did for me and for all the fun we shared on our travels: England, Germany, Switzerland, France, Virginia, Kentucky, Arizona, Santa Monica, Hawaii, Yosemite, Santa Barbara, Central Coast, San Diego, Hollywood. Thank you for also being my coach: softball, track, cross country and soccer. Your dedication to never giving up and your strong work ethic was inspiring.*

I spoke with Louise Vandenheede and she said you were the last of the "Mohicans"....and what a party they are throwing now that you have arrived.

*Here's to you Dad.
love your daughter,
Carol*
