“ When someone we love dies it breaks our hearts. We try to accept it as a part of life as we struggle to move on without them in our lives. Fortunately, our loving Creator has promised that soon such events as death will no longer haunt mankind and separate us from those we love. Jehovah God has promised to destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5: 28, 29) May these Bible truths bring comfort and reassurance to your hearts that you can see your loved one again. My deepest sympathy to you.

“ Sorry for the loss of your son Robert. Times like these we sometimes wonder does God care.. I hope you find comfort in God's word the bible. God promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:4). Jesus taught that by means of God's kingdom.(Matt 6:9,10), the resurrection is a sure hope for those that have died, and they have a hope of living forever on a paradise earth. “ My sincere sympathy to the Ferguson family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As your hearts are full of grief and pain, I pray that your family will draw comfort from the promise from God found in John 5:28, 29. Here we are assured that soon our loved ones will be resurrected back to life. May God prove to be your true source for strength and hope during this most difficult time.

“ My cousin Bobby, words cannot express how much you impacted my life. Because of you I learned acceptance and determination. I learned compassion and love. I see you every time I help a student with a disABILITY. I know you are running and free in heaven. Keep a watch over your Mom and enjoy your newfound freedom. I love you my beautiful cousin. Love, Dee Dee

“ My Bobby... I Love you so much. I can't believe your gone. The only comfort is that you are with your Dad, Grandma and Grandpa. I'm sure Grandma is holding your hand and kissing you all over. You were the happiest baby..boy and man and the most handsome. I will miss kissing that face. Tell God to please take care of your Mom because she will need it. She always new you had to go first because no one could take care of you the way she did. Someday we will be together again. I will miss you always. Love, Aunt Jennie

“ My deepest condolences to the family on the loss of Robert. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief, and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. But remember that the Almighty God sees your tears, he feels your pain. He also promises by means of his kingdom (Dan 2:44) there will be time when "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore" (Rev 21:3,4) So until then, he will continue with you to comfort and sustain you through this very difficult time. (Psalms 55:22)

“ Bobby, you are the best cousin that anyone could ever ask for. I loved seeing your smile and hearing you laugh. Just those two things could make my day. I don't think there was anyone who met you that didn't instantly love you. I'm so happy that I got to spend these last weeks with you. Please say hello to Grandma, Grandpa and your dad for me. I love you very much and you better be there to give me a smile when we meet again <3

“ Robert words can not describe the pain and emptiness I feel. We have been friends for over 18 years. Even though I was your teacher it turns out you taught me. You taught me to stop bitching about what you don't have and focus on what you do and what is important like family and friends. Lots of good times and memories that I will hold in my heart too many to tell and some just to embarrassing to share with your family. I love you, and don't be causing too much trouble up there with your dad. Love Beth
