“ Grandpa always put on a show for us at Christmas. Saving the best for last, he'd be sure to gather us all around just to tell us how much we meant to him, and to share with his grandkids his own magic of Christmas. I remember the year he was most creative, calling us kids into a circle and passing around various food ideas. You can imagine how confused we all must have been, that us until Alan discovered Grandpa had hidden our gifts of money inside each loaf of bread. Must've cashed in his collection of gold coins he told Sarah and I he had stashed away in caves of the old country. What an imagination he shared with us.

“ Uncle Bob you were the best. My fondest memory was when we had the cousins party, I believe at Jennifer's, and you came dressed as the Shiek!! We had so much fun that day. You had the greatest sense of humor which I shall miss and treasure all the family get togethers we had as kids. Our family was very special. R.I.P. Say high to my parents for us. Sending love, hugs, and kisses from Cheryl, Ricki, Fred, Denise, Stephanie and Danny.

“ I have so many memories of visiting Uncle Bob and Aunt Geri! Town Pop in the basement and playing ping pong. He dressed up as the Sheik at Marychris's high school graduation party at Uncle Mikes and Aunt Marion's house. Selling me my first car, the blue Ford Granada with the bullet hole in the door. He was always a jokester. He was the only person in the whole wide world that I allowed to call me Lori! Uncle Bob, May God and everyone in heaven enjoy you and your warm heart. Love you, Lora ❤️
