“ Erin, I never met your dad, but I know you and that says so much about him! You are such a kind, caring, intelligent, and patient person. I'm sorry I cannot make it to your dad's memorial. I hope you surround yourself with family and friends and celebrate his memories and life.

It was so sad to hear the news about Mr. Holt (as he will always be known to me). His sense of humor and witty sarcasm were amazing. I have so many good memories of him. The rides in the Porsche, making Erin and I repeat "Men are pigs" before leaving the house as teenagers, and how sometimes just the looks he'd give would make you burst out laughing. My thoughts and prayers for the family at this difficult time. He was one of a kind and he will be missed.

Thank you for the kind words Kristen! Our family appreciates it. He definitely had fans amongst my friends. <3

Now this is the Rob I knew...always had his bluetooth phone in his ear - great guy and will surely be missed by all whose life he touched. Great guy. Had a lot of laughs with Rob and Becky. I am always here for you Becky!

Marsha Burtney - August 29, 2019 at 09:14 AM

The passing of Rob comes as a great shock and sadness. I have known Rob since high school in Germany. He was always a steady personality and a great bass player. He was also a very solid friend and brother-in-arms. My heartfelt condolences to his family and close friends. He will be missed as I now have no one to prevent me from making a questionable financial transaction at Sweetwater Music in Fort Wayne. (He would totally get that!). Love to all.

Lee "JV" Farmer - August 29, 2019 at 03:52 PM

Lee, while I never had the pleasure of meeting you, Rob spoke of you fondly. And I totally get your comment about Sweetwater Music. Rob was an avid guitar (bass) lover.

Becky, I am so sorry for your loss. My deepest condolences to you and your family. I know what a heartbreak this is for you.

Bob was an old friend we met the 25th of May 1978 at basic training. Mike Lamarca, Bob and I became the best of friends. I am deeply saddened by his loss but my life was much richer having known him. Bob loved his family and his country and we are a slightly lesser nation without him Aim High my brother.
