“ Bob and Penny have been treasured friends for most of my life. Penny used to babysit for me and was my Matron of Honor when Richard and I married. We camped together, had parties, dinners and just visited. We've always been there for one another. Bob loved woodworking, his recliner and his wife's awesome cooking. Family was FIRST to Bob. He and Penny also helped to bring us back into the church by being our sponsors in the Penitant group at St. Ephrem. So many wonderful memories. Our lives have been intertwined for 56 years. Bob loved Penny and Steven and Laura with all his heart and then God gifted him with Mason. You will be missed my friend but never forgotten. In our hearts forever.
