“ On Wednesday, my Uncle Rob sadly passed away from covid. We are all in shock and to say we are devastated is an understatement. Uncle Rob was our "fun" uncle, my godfather, and the greatest father to my cousin, Max. I will never forget all the memories with you- from convincing me that you had a peanut farm in your backyard when I was a child, to setting up my basement like a nightclub for my 13th birthday, to going to see Eminem concerts. There are so many more that I will forever cherish. I miss you already.

We will do everything we can to keep Max taken care of for you, Uncle Rob. I will make sure that Jack remembers you and I will try to keep the same goofy, child-like spirit alive as we raise him❤️

“ Rob was a great cousin to grow up with. Always had a smile on his face and nice things to say. Like all boys growing up he could be a little stinker. I loved him dearly and will miss his visits with Max to my mom and dads. It was always a very special day when he would just stop by. I was always proud of him and what he accomplished. Showed me what a great father he could be. I will miss him dearly. Gone too soon. I love you Rob..

“ I’ve lost two very important people within the last six months, my Grandma Tedeschi and now my Uncle Robbie, and its made me look back at all the memories we’ve captured over the years. That’s why I wanted to share just a little sliver of how present he was in our lives growing up.

I have so many memories with him, like when he took me to a haunted house for my birthday and I got locked in a coffin, or when he tried to convince me that he had an apple press at home and made homemade cider, or even swinging on the swings with him and being so excited whenever he came over. I could never thank him enough for the amount of love he showed me growing up and will do my best to show that same kind of love to my cousin Max and nephew Jack.

He was a fantastic uncle. He was not only goofy and playful, but caring and supportive. He was at everything. If you asked him to come, he was there. That is why it breaks my heart to have to make this post and say goodbye tomorrow.

I’m so thankful for the time I had with you. I wish there was more, but I will forever cherish every moment we’ve shared. Rest Easy...I love you Uncle Robbie. ❤️

“ Rob was the love of my life for the last 5+ years. He swept me off my feet and rocked my whole world. What attracted me the most to him was that he was such an amazing father, one of the best. He could fix anything and solve every problem, I called him The Wolf (from Pulp Fiction). We had lots of plans, goals, and dreams we wanted to chase. My life will never be the same without him and he will forever be in my heart. RIP my sweet Babes. <3

“ Rob was one of my oldest friends, from skateboarding to roller hockey in your backyard, to bike tag we did it all! His laugh was infectious and always fun to be around. Fast forward almost 40 years our sons are where we were so long ago just watching them play would remind me of the things we used to do and I'm going to miss that! The neighborhood will never be the same without you and your shoes never be filled, rest easy my friend till we meet again.

“ I helped Robbie build his T Bucket and many other projects. I grew up with him throughout school and also lived a block away. I wish we had more time together cause you were one I could talk to about anything and Kristen loved you as much as me. Love Rich & Kristen
