“ I had the privilege of knowing Bob for 27 years. He always treated me as one of his own. I am truly glad that my family got to spend time with him as well. Family and friends were very important to him. He will be missed that is for sure. RIP Bob. See you on the other side.

“ I will remember Bob for his kind words and smile. He was one of those guys we in England call, a true gentleman. I am sure he would not want us to be sad at his passing but celebrate the loved ones we have in our life's and enjoy the time we have with them as he enjoyed his time with us. For the rest of us, If Christmas is hard, If you've lost someone dear. Just look in your heart, And you'll know they're still here. The star in the sky, The light falling snow. The robin outside, It seems like they know. If this is a time, When you're struggling through. Just do what you can, For what matters, is you. There's no need to be merry, There's no need to be bright. Just do what you can, And it will all be alright.

“ Bob Miller. What can I say ? You came onto my life when I need a friend and you became my " BROTHER ". We shared many a great moment together in the woods. Sometimes sitting next to each other, sometimes talking on the two-way radio. You and Bunny took me right into your home as a family member always inviting me to sit at your table and share a meal. Life will not be the same without you my brother.

“ Sorry to hear of (uncle) Bobs passing. I liked him alot. He was always nice to me as a kid. And later when I was an adult. I will miss seeing him at deer season. We shared stories and laughed. One time only him and I had shot deer on opening morning. Then later we were in the garage drinking a beer. One by one the guys came out to head into the woods. We kept telling them "we're headed out in a few minutes". We stood there drinking and b.s'in till late in the night. I'll never forget him. 😞
