“ When your sons say that you were their Hero. Theirs nothing higher. Whether you believe that God created us or like me and believe that we're creating God. The good people like Bob are building a wonderful God and his actions will have a reaction. He will be rewarded. I hope I'm wrong because if Bob is now in Heaven, that man is walking with his head up high. I also believe that my Mom and Dad loved that man for giving their daughter the most adorable grand kids ever made.

joe pylar - February 02, 2013 at 01:00 PM

“ To Mary and all the Schneiders/Pylars, I am so very sad of hearing Bob's passing. I know it has been eons since I knew him (when Mary and Bob first married and had their first adorable son of more children to come). My memories were of a very funny, kind, uber smart, patient, family-oriented gentleman (:
God only takes the best- even though it's totally not fair EVER.
My heart goes out to each and everyone of you, my prayers to send you strength to get through the long days and months to come.

Spirit and Light,

“ Bob never ceased to amaze, whether he was changing a gas tank on a van in the middle of nowhere (on vacation), playing his 12-string guitar, or installing/programming million dollar automation around the country, he could do it all. The brightest candles burn twice as quick. Love you brother. Anthony and Shelley Ant Jr. and Chris

“ I grew up with Mary, Helen as my best friend, and the other Pylar children. I've never met Bob, but from reading all the previous posts, I know he was a great man. There are no words to tell you all how sorry I am for your loss. My heart breaks for you. You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. God bless you.

“ Bob, Our hearts are broken, since your the guy we all ran to when things needed to be fixed, we are pretty lost. You told me that I was one of the people you would make sure was always taken care of, I am so proud of that. I am proud of a relationship that has spaned over 36 yrs. I am proud you considered me part of your family. Most of all I am proud of the fact that you loved me. I have always thought of you as one of Gods best. not only are you the smartest person (sorry dad) I have ever met, you have one of the kindest hearts. This isnt going to be easy, we will be brave, stay strong, love and help each other like you expect us to. I love you very much, you will always be so important to us. Our world will never be the same.

Love, Helen

“ You are a great man who brought so much joy to our lives especially our children! We will miss all our trips together and there were so many (Frankemuth, Cedar Point, Soccer trips, Myrtle Beach, the cottage and Mackinaw) We will miss just hanging out in the backyard together watching the kids play or you out there playing with them. You brought so much laughter to Elizabeth and Olivia's lives. What other grandpa would have his hair done and nails done by two giggly girls almost every week!?! I don't think many at all! Oh and let's not forget our weekly date and sometimes more on a soccer field watching Elizabeth play her heart out and Olivia running around with the older girls. It just won't be the same!

I promise that we will not let them forget any wonderful memory of you. If they do, it wouldn't be because they forgot it it would be because there are so many to keep track of it will be hard to keep them all in their little brains!

*Thank you for being a wonderful grandpa and father! You will be missed more than you will ever know and I promise you that these girls will be everything that you wanted them to become and more.
Cara xoxo*

P.S. I am not letting the girls forget my most favorite saying that you say to them "Mommy Rules!"

“ Our sympathy and prayers are with you, Bob, Cara, and all of the "Schneider Family"! Even though we did not know your Dad personally Bobby, just listening to all the stories you and Cara shared with us over the years, your Father was a very kind, loving and compassionate person. His loves for his family especially for his grandchildren are wonderful traits we all should inspire as God's children. His integrity is evident in you! Bobby, I know your Dad is so very proud of the son, husband, and father you are. The loss is very deep to all of you because he is no longer in our world. Please try to take comfort, with faith, that he is back at home with God and no longer in horrific pain. May God be very near to you at this time of deep sorrow and seek Him to comfort you and give you strength to meet each new tomorrow.

*We love both of you so much!

“ *I love my grandpa so much!!! He went to all my soccer games. When I broke my arm,he drove 12 hours straight to see me in the hospital right before I had surgery. He was always there for me . He was the best and I miss him so much. He always helped me and he let me play with him all the time. He always let me come over and he never said no. Him and me always laid down and watched tv together especially this last month. I love him and he is the best grandpa a girl could ever ask for. I was so lucky to have him. Love you always!!!!
