“ My condolences are sent to the family and descendants of my first cousin Robert. His father, John, and my mother, Marie, were brother and sister. My sister, Dorothy (Torbron) Flanagan, (age 90) lives in Allen Park, MI. She and I have been researching our family history for more than 40 years and she regularly reads the obituaries. We visited Rosemary at least 15 years ago and she expressed a great deal of gratitude to Bob for taking care of her. I live in Las Vegas and if you are interested in his family history you can contact me at nerak2000@earthlink.net. Best wishes, Karen (Torbron) Ristic.

“ I liked Uncle Bob's laugh. He really got a kick out of teasing our dog Cricket these last couple of years and she just thought he was great! One memory I have was at our house in South Lyon about 5 or 6 years ago. We were having a party and Uncle Bob came into the kitchen area where there was a nice easy chair and sat down to talk to me while I was working in the kitchen. The song on our radio was "What a wonderful world" sung by Louie Armstrong and he mentiioned how that was his favorite. A few moments later I look over and he was sound asleep! It will always be a precious memory for me.
