“ *Cousin Bobby,
As I write this my heart and mind are flooding with stories and beautiful memories which could fill volumes of books..... I remember telling you that your a great hero . And your response was ;no not me it was the brave men who lost their life's in war that are the heroes. I thought to myself only the humblest and noble soul could say such a thing ! Fair enough cousin. The truth is you are a hero and you were my hero! Bobby bravely fought, saved many life's, surviving hell and still created a lifetime of virtue and moral integrity that only the greatest of men who have walked this earth have been able to do. Not only was Bobby handsome he was a perfect gentleman. Bobby was a brilliant light to everyone and animals adored him. He was a gift and light in my life .
WHEN A GREAT MAN DIES , FOR YEARS THE LIGHT HE LEAVES BEHIND HIM , LIES ON THE PATHS OF MEN.
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
I will feel your light and love forever.....

“ Met Bob in 1969 at GM Tech Center. I called him “COWBOY BOB” because of his horse racing and his Horseshoe Ring. We enjoyed good n bad times and laughed a lot at everything. Bob spent more time on the phone with his stock broker than work.😭😭😭 He was a true friend and honorable veteran. He suffered a lot near the end but had the STRONGEST WIFE I ever saw. Trudy is a ANGEL and I don't know how she stayed so strong for Bob and herself. Take car of Mom now Bob. SEMPER FI. Steve Sandoe
