“ Kim,
I met your father & mother one time at the hospital and it was evident to see the love your family has for each other. That love will always continue. A scripture that I read often to find comfort is from Ecclesiastes "To everything there is a season; and a time to every purpose under heaven." Our heartfelt wishes and sympathy are extended to you and your family.

“ Dear Shirley,

It has taken me awhile to write to you because I can't imagine how you must feel. You were a loving wife that took care of him during his illness. I know he appreciated it. But now he is with God and he won't be suffering anymore. You and your daughters will miss him, but his memories will last forwver. My families sympathy and prayers are with you and your family.
