“ The Marshall family:

It was a real pleasure to get reacquainted with Bob during this last year. I always enjoyed our conversations and considered Bob and Carole real friends. Both my husband and I are deeply moved by his passing, and our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this most difficult time.

*With our deepest sympathy,

“ During the past year, my friendship with Bob was rekindled, thanks to the 45th Fitzgerald reunion. Also, I found a new friend in Carole, and my husband found a new friend in Bob. We will miss him very much. He was just so very upbeat and so incredibly nice. Our sincere condolences to Carole and the family. “ To The Marshall Family - I unfortunately never had the privilege of meeting Mr. Marshall in person. But since I work with Sherry I know that he had to be a fabulous father and husband. The stories she tells (and there are many) keep us laughing and have taught us of the tremendous love he shared with his family and friends.

“ I haven't seen Bob since graduation day 1962. My memories of Bob, during our high school years, are pleasant ones. Bob was always the same; very pleasant, always wore a smile, and always friendly.

I offer my condolences to his family.

God Bless,

“ Carol, Sherry and Bobby, My prayers are with you, I am so sorry for your loss. May God grant you the strength to go on. Mr. Marshall (Bob) was a wonderful man, a loving husband, and a awesome Father, I remember so many times as a little girl, wanting to spend the night with Sherry, and always being welcome by Carol and Bob. Its been way to long since Ive seen any of you, but do know that you are and have always been in my thoughts and prayers. My fondest childhood memories are those on NORTHLAWN! we were more then just neighbors, we were a family of friends. I am here if there is ever anything I can do. I love you and miss you all.. God Bless

“ Bob and Harry emailed each other when both their battles with cancer were still in the first year. Both resolved to give it the best fight they could. And true to their pact, neither one ever gave up til the end. Trust in God to help you stay strong when you ride the waves of grief.###imported-begin##Debbie Schullery Harding###imported-end##

“ I am glad that I got to know Bob during the last year. With all that he had to endure he kept an admirable attitude. Whether he knew it or not. Carol, you were a pillar of strength and safety for Bob. You can know that you were everything you could be for him. God bless,

“ Bob fought the valiant fight for his life and I have such admiration for his spirit. We all became closer after the last couple class reunions and he was on a fast track to connect with as many folks as he could the last couple years. We will miss him and his smile. I will miss his visits to my salon after his treatments, updating me all the way. What a determination he had.
Be at rest in heaven ,Bob
God Bless you Carol, you were his strength.
Love and peace
