

Rochell C. Langlois

September 3, 1951 - May 17, 2025

Rochell C. Langlois (Shelly), a devoted wife, loving mother, proud grandmother, and faithful servant of God, passed away peacefully in Henry Ford Macomb Hospital at 73 years old.

Born in Detroit to Gasper (deceased) and Eugenia Amato, Shelly lived a life rooted in faith, family, and selfless love. She was the beloved wife of Kim Langlois for 54 beautiful years, and together they built a life filled with joy, laughter, and unwavering devotion.

Shelly was the cherished mother of Shawn (Nicole) Langlois, Kyle (Kelly) Langlois, Shannon (Todd) Lambert, and Cristofer Clark. She was the very proud Grammy of Ella, Madison, Charley, and Harper, who brought her endless joy and pride. She is also survived by her dear brother, David (Lynn) Amato.

Shelly's life was a testament to the power of love and faith. She found joy in the simple things—spending time at the cottage, cheering on the Detroit Tigers, playing games with loved ones, and making sure everyone had their favorite birthday dinner. She never missed a moment to support her children and grandchildren, attending every event with pride and enthusiasm. Her generosity, warmth, and unwavering faith inspired all who knew her.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, May 27, 2025, from 2:00 PM – 8:00 PM at Wasik Funeral Home, Inc., 49150 Schoenherr Rd. (north of 22 Mile Rd.), Shelby Township.

“ I have shed more tears in one week than I have in a year. For the 50 + years I have known her since I married her cousin Ken Blackstone Shelly was like a big sister to me. We were lucky enough to live right down the road from the Langlois family for 13 yrs. Shelly and I would alternate family parties. Even when we moved to CA our late night chats kept us up to date with our lives. Every visit back to MI was a must see Shelly. Gathering aunts and cousins to eat at Big Boys. Shelly introduced me to Christian Women's club at Fernhill many years ago where I ended up volunteering for years and joining a Bible study because of her. Her faith, love and genuine heart for giving was so special. I will always miss her. She is an angel of God now.

I remember meeting Shelly and her husband Kim at one of our church outings... She was so anxious to finally meet us (her cousin mentioned that we also attended the same church) that her bubbling personality just overwhelmed me! Ever since that day, our friendship has been a joy to me! Rest easy Shelly; You are at peace now with the Lord!

“ Memories!!! So many to share, one that sticks in my brain and makes me laugh all the time, Shelbie's wedding, only you would be from Michigan but walk around a wedding in Florida with 4 blankets wrapped around you,
Our nights playing euchre on the lanai, determined to beat Kim and Joel, our Downtown St Patty's block party's laughing at everyone dressed up.

So thankful we got to spend so much time together this past summer. You will be truly missed but never forgotten!!!
