“ Grandpa.... It still doesn't feel real.

I wish I could walk into your house right now and have you greet me with "What's going on, kid?" or have go through your routine list of questions for me:

"You want something to eat?" "You want a beer?" "You want a punch in the nose?"

I am going to miss you always making sure that I give you a hug the second I saw you, even before my jacket and shoes were off. If only I could have one of your bear hugs for one last time. You were so strong and in charge... but so gentle and warm. I've never heard you raise your voice around me in my entire life. All the times you came to my rescue when I didn't make the best choices and never once did you judge me, lecture me, or try to teach me a lesson. I loved you for that.

You were so special to me and I don't know how I'm going to go on without you. The selfish part of me wishes that you could have stayed here with us longer, but I know that you did all that you could. I will forever cherish all of the memories we have together and how you made everything fun. I hope you're up there rockin' your favorite gray sweatpants and sweatshirt, smoking Pall Mall cigarettes, and playing cards. I am so blessed to know that I have the greatest guardian angel watching over me and we will be reunited one day.

*Your grand daughter,
Kara*
