

Romin Joseph Grozenski

May 2, 1922 - December 18, 2007

Romin Joseph Grozenski died peacefully, surrounded by his family, December 18, 2007. Born May 2, 1922, to the late John and Clara Grozenski, he lived most of his life in Detroit, Michigan. He married Mary (Abraham), his “sugar” in 1943 and enjoyed 64 years of wedded bliss. Romin’s love for their four children was abundant, unconditional and unending. His interest in the scrap business began in 1944 when he worked as a peddler with a single dump truck until 1971 when he started Romin Containerized Service. Mary always maintained an active role in his business as secretary/treasurer. In 1984, working side by side, they established a prosperous industrial scrap recycling plant under the name of Romin Iron and Metal. His son, John, began working with Romin in 1974, and will continue his legacy. Romin’s passion was his work although he also derived great pleasure from golf, crosswords and jigsaw puzzles. Beloved husband of Mary. Loving father of four children, Florence Flis who predeceased him in July 2007, and survived by John (Kathleen) Grozenski, Deborah (James) Boisvert and Elizabeth (Michael) Boyd. Eleven grandchildren, Dominic, Karen, Christopher, Jeffrey, Abigail, Marcus, Eric, Romin, Gregory, Sam, Alex, and four great grandchildren, Jessica, Ethan, Camille, and Natalie also survive Romin. Predeceased by his sister Virginia Curcuruto, he is survived by siblings Sylvia Talerico, Eugene Grozenski, Patricia Gaynett and John Grozenski.
