“ I will always remember his smile, which everybody knows and will miss but one of my favourite memories was just in January when my uncle Ron was so kind to pick me up at the airport. I expected him to be sitting in the car in the car park like most do when they are doing an airport pick up but there I am slumped over on the carousel waiting for my luggage and Ronnie appears out of nowhere to greet me to make sure we didn't cross signals. He gives me a great big hug and smile, takes my bags and made my normally horrible travelling experience a great one. We spent the hour travelling back talking about travel and the bar industry..it would be the last time we spoke but the best memory I have of him. I am so sorry I can't be there with all of you on Sunday but please know my heart is there and sending my love..rip Ronnie xoxo

“ His smile said it all. I met Ronnie because my son, Sam, and his son, Patrick, are best of friends. I was always greeted with one of his signature bear hugs. He treated people with respect and I will surely miss watching him play pool with the gang. His grin lit up the room and now heaven will bask in that privilege. My prayers are with his friends and family.

“ Having never really known my Michigan cousins, I didn't know what to expect when I met them for lunch at the Black Rock back in 2013. I felt comfortable talking with everyone immediately but was still not sure how they felt. After lunch, Ronnie came up to me and gave me a hug. That was when I knew I was with family. The few times I've talked with him since, he always greeted me with a big smile. I only wish I had gotten to know him better. He will be missed.
