

Ronald Lee Amatangelo

August 20, 1948 - November 16, 2022

Ronald Lee Amatangelo, 74, of New Baltimore, Michigan, passed away peacefully at his home on November 16, 2022 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. He is survived by his cherished wife of 52 years, So Kum; his children Nicholas (Mimi) and Lisa; his grandchildren Julian, Annalisa, Mia and Donovan; his siblings Dennis (Nancy), James (Linda), Lynne Campolong (Joseph) and Alex; as well as a niece and several nephews. Ron is predeceased by his parents Otto and Lorraine, his son Christopher, and his grandson, Daniel.

Ron was born in Detroit on August 20, 1948 and graduated from East Detroit High School in 1966. He then joined the Air Force where he served as airbase security police in Korea and Italy. He returned stateside in 1972 to begin his long career in the golf and bowling businesses, which included Regal Lanes, Salt River Golf & Bowl, and most recently, Oakridge Golf Club. He worked hand in hand with his brother James, cousin John, late father Otto, and his late uncle Guido for most of his career. He had an unmatched work ethic and he thoroughly enjoyed interacting with and serving the public. He certainly had the gift of gab and wouldn't hesitate to chat up a stranger or have a sit down with anyone willing to discuss anything and everything. Ron was curious, making him an avid reader, movie buff and music aficionado. He had an entrepreneurial spirit and vast imagination, and because of that, would often enthusiastically encourage others to pursue their passion once he got wind of it. He was a proud and adoring father and grandfather, and enjoyed talking (bragging) about his children and grandchildren and sharing their achievements with those around him.

A private memorial will be held, and the family requests that no flower arrangements are sent. Donations to Let's Win Pancreatic Cancer: <https://lets-wincancer.org/> are appreciated.

“Ronnie was my first dance partner; I was 4 he was 7. But from the moment I met him I was his tag along. I loved being around him because he was like an older brother. That smile of his has never changed. Ron was very patient and kind with his younger girl cousin tagging along. It was a bond I cherished through the years. Every time we saw each other he had a big smile and a chuckle. Lots of good times. Love him!! My heartfelt sympathy to Choe, Nick and Lisa. Much Love. Connie

“I remember the first time I meet Ron, he was behind the bar telling a story about something on the golf course and had everyone laughing. He had a vibrant personality and could get anyone laughing.
