“ I Am With You Always
To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess,
how much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
all of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone.
I'll greet you with a smile and "welcome home".

“ Well, my honey, I've been blessed to have had such a great life for over 58 years with you!!! We've had some REAL downs, but so many more ups throughout our marriage and even though we are two totally different people, I can't help but to think it's been the reason for our togetherness!! You've always been there for me, our family, friends and friends who have become our family!! Your loyalty and logic (although, it drove me crazy at times) have been an example to all who have been blessed to have known you!! YOU will always be my "BOZO" and I, your "BARBIE" and I will always love YOU!! May YOU rest in God's arms!!

“ *Barb and family,
Kay and I were saddened to hear of Ron’s passing. I echo the memories Dale shared. I looked up to Ron as my big cousin who cared about me. When I was about 10 or 12, I would come to Detroit for a week to stay with Uncle Joe and Aunt Gay. One of my favorite memories is of Ron’s black Plymouth Convertible. He would take me on rides with him, showing this country kid the big city. I remember him treating me like I was much older than my years. Time is a salve that lessens hurt but will never completely heal the wound. Ron was a kind and gentle spirit; he will be forever in my prayers, as will you. Peace be with you and your family.

“ *Dear Barb and Family,
Ron was absolutely the best cousin anyone could ever have in life! There are so many wonderful memories of times spent with him when he came to visit us on our farm in Ohio. He is now at peace and in total comfort but our hearts are saddened with the loss we now feel. Barb and family, we hold you in our most positive thoughts and hope as you reflect on all the wonderful years you had with Ron that your tears will be tears of joy and laughter remembered with this wonderful guy! Fondly, Dale & Margy VanLerberghe*
