“ What I remember most about Ron is how much he adored his family. It didn't matter how he was feeling he always made it to the birthday parties and holidays and I know the last couple of years the effort involved in him getting there was great. He is resting peacefully now and his work here is done and done well for he left behind three beautiful children and their children to carry on his love.

“ *To Ronald's whole family, prayers and peace are being sent to you in this very difficult time. Know that your grief is shared by those that knew him and even those that did not but for connection through you. Take care of each other until you can gather to celebrate his life together.
