“ I will miss you everyday. You were a great cook, helped people in your younger years and worked hard for the people. Yes he did the same thing with our family made us so angry with him because of things he said, but turn around and do something very special for us. I feel so sad that I can't come to the funeral. I just don't have the proper paperwork to come. I really never had a problem before covid so I just put it in the back of my head. I started my paperwork in December because I wanted to tie up loose ends but I was to late. I will never forgive myself. I pray for you everyday so you go heaven with the rest of the family. God bless you my dear uncle.

“ He was one of a kind, he could make you so angry you would be grinding your teeth and then he would hand you a drink and act like nothing happened. He will be surely missed by myself and family.
