“ I am so very, very sad to just learn of Uncle Ron's passing. Steve and I always remember him for his kindness and humor. From square dances to extended family reunions - he always was grounded in life and yet the life of the event. Our hearts ache with yours. Our most sincere condolences and sympathy. With love - Steve and Sandy (Smith) Doty (Sandy is William Smith's daughter)

“ First, let me say, I didn't know Ronald J. Smith, but I do know how it feels to lose a love one in death. You never forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics and gatherings with them. There is hope of seeing our love ones again. At Isaiah 26:19 says, " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the Earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news . Wouldn't you say. Please read it in your Bible. Laurie.

“ I will really miss his quirky, quick wit . As soon as I said something he would have an off the cuff remark that I should have known was coming . I love you Dorothy , Patti Jo
