

Ronald P. Jergovich

April 1, 1973 - December 17, 2005

Dear Father of Kyle. Beloved Son of Ronald G and Darlene. Dear Brother of Susan and Theresa. Dear Fiancee of Crystal Piotrowski. Dear Grandson of Anita Ricci.

Previous Events

Service

DEC 20. 9:30 AM (ET)

St. Peter Catholic Church
95 Market Street
Mount Clemens, MI

Tribute Wall

“ I am very saddened to hear of Ronnie's passing. Though time and distance made us lose touch with each other, the friendship and memories always held a place in my heart. Though I shed a tear this morning when I heard the news, I followed it up by laughter. He was one of the funniest and craziest people I ever knew. I was just telling a friend the other day how my friend Ronnie said he used to drive an '84 Vette only to inform you that it was a Chevette and not a Corvette. Quite a lasting memory after 15 years. I will also always remember driving his mom crazy with two trips to the hospital for stitches, late nights of playing Atari, listening to LL Cool J, watching Blue Thunder for the quick nude scene, listening to Howie Mandel on HBO, swearing beyond our years, and all the other things 10 to 16 year old boys did in the mid- to late-80's. My thoughts and prayers to his family and friends.##imported-begin##Jeffrey K Fleming##imported-end##

December 19, 2005 at 04:33 AM

“ We are so sorry to hear of Ronnie's death and extend our deepest sympathy. While we cannot relieve the great sorrow you bear, we hope there will be some comfort in the love of family and friends. You will always be special to us-we are so sad to know you are suffering. God bless you with peace in the time ahead.##imported-begin##The Kouzoujian family##imported-end##

December 18, 2005 at 09:40 PM

“ Our sorrowful condolences upon the loss of your son...we know he is with God in his heavenly court and we hope His comfort will console you.##imported-begin##Everett and Mary Bissonette##imported-end##

December 18, 2005 at 03:04 PM