“ *My Life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.*

*Of times He weaveth sorrow
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.*

*Not til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.*

Rosalie is Home with Jesus. May everyone's prayers bring peace to

“ I still cannot believe Rosie is gone. My heart is deeply saddened and so very heavy. I cannot see the keys as I type this for the tears streaming down my face. Rosie was everything a parent could ask for of a child. Kind, considerate, caring, and compassionate are just a few of the characteristics she exhibited in her short life. On the last day that I saw her, I went to the gym door as the class was preparing to leave gym and there was a small group of girls there. I joined in the small talk with them and as luck would have it, Rosie was to my right and for no reason in the world, I just wrapped my arm around her shoulder for a brief time. She spoke to us and then they departed to the junior high building. It wasn't luck that day that brought us together. No, there was a higher power at work that day for God knew that would be my last time to see her. She will not be forgotten. My heart goes out to the family. May God give the strength to endure this tragedy, Sincerely, Linda Kargol###imported-begin##Linda Kargol###imported-end##

“ the bensie family~ Rosalie was my best friend since 1st grade. Once my family and i found out that she had died our eyes filled with tears. I remember when me and rosalie used to go over eachother houses in the summer time and play outside... When she came over we would play "s.o.s"... we had so much fun... up untill 5th grade we were like sisters.. then i found out that i was moving... i cried because i would not get to see her again and the rest of my friends at my school. After i moved i tried to stay in touch with her. the last time i saw her was when i had my 13th birthday. We had a blast playing around and riding on my go-kart. After that our connection between us was lost and over time as i think and think about her and how she is doing... wanting to call her everyday because i miss her and i wish i could go back and see her again. well that didn't happen.... and i wish it would of because i am going to miss her so much. i will think of rosalie everyday and hope she is watching over me. i want u to no that i am so sorry that you lost her.##imported-begin##brittany dolkowski##imported-end##

“ God looked around His garden,he saw an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face. He put his arm around you, and lifted you to rest; God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered peace be thine. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. Know that all of the St Anne community is Praying for you. “ *To the Bensie Family -
When God calls our children
to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometimes question
the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with,
the death of a sister, friend and child.
Who does so much to make our world,
seem so wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling
the aged to His fold.
So He picks a rosebud
before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them,
and so He takes but few.
To make the land of heaven
more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult
still somehow we must try.
The saddest word mankind knows
will always be Good-bye.
So when a beautiful child departs,
we who are left behind,
Must realize God loves children.
Angels Are Hard To Find.*

The St Anne Class of 2008 have lost a wonderful young lady. These kids are better people because of the example Rosalie lead by. Sweet, kind, helpful, friendly, supportive, positive. She will always be remembered by her St. Anne Family.##imported-begin##The Barkume Family##imported-end##

“ THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our St. Anne chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Rosalie, your sweet smile will forever be in our hearts...xo##imported-begin##The Koleba Family##imported-end##

“ Rosalie

*Rosalie~
sweetness & courage,
undaunted by illness;
a “rose garden” wreathed in sunny smiles
who brightened up the room
when the sunshine of her smile broke forth to dispel the gloom.*

*Rosalie~
loving daughter,
stalwart sibling,
dear, gentle friend;
a teenager with determination;
loyal St. Anne Eagle
now flying high with the angels,
interceding, from this day forward,
for all who love her,
an angel who will guard her loved ones in all their ways
following closely beside them
each and every day.*

*My thoughts and prayers go with you in the days to come.
May our dear Lord and Blessed Lady
wrap their arms of comfort around you,
holding you close to their hearts,
and grant you peace and healing.*

“ To the Bensie family, I pray God holds you in the palm of his hand. This is a tragedy to not only your family but to the entire St. Anne family. I can recall Rosalie's smiley face everyday in my classroom and in the halls. She was so smart, so nice and so helpful. She was truly just beginning to grow into a beautiful young lady. My faith is being challenged with this heartbreaking news, however, my faith also tells me God found her so special she ought to be with Him now. In her short time here, God placed her to be with you. May you find comfort in knowing you were raising an angel. Sincerely,
