“ I met Mrs. Talerico when i was 7 years old- Franky and I were hanging out with our kid crew. Mrs. Talerico had me over for dinner. We had Spagehetti - and for starters she served garlic bread. When the bread was passed around I explained that mine wasn't “cooked enough.” The garlic bread served at my house was always dark brown and burnt... Mrs. Talerico laughed ( such a unique laugh) and said “ I'll tell you what, why don't you give my garlic bread a try...and if you don't like it- I'll put it back in the oven and cook it longer”. Her garlic bread was great and I'll never forget it. Growing up Frank and I had several more adventures and mishaps as kids. Mrs. Talerico always shared a sincere “as a matter of fact” approach to our shenanigans sprinkled with an unforgettable laugh and spot on humor. She will be missed greatly...big hugs and deepest condolences to the Talerico Family. - Dan Loughead and Family
