“Rose and my Mother (Sylvanell Davidson) were the best of friend's for years. Mom (Syl) met Rose through a friend "Alice Bell" and became friends through the years in Bradenton, Florida. Rose was by my mother's side , after loosing (Husband) Scott.....And, After loosing (Ed), Rose, and my mother became close friend's and their favorite pass time was playing Bingo, every chance they could in Tampa. Rose loved making washcloths out of yarn, was her pass time as well and gave to friends..... Rose was a kind person, she always had a smile and she loved her daughter's and families. She will truly be missed by all. My condolences to the family and God Bless all.....

Sincerely, Carol and Richard Fasse
