“ Dear Szajna Family,

I am so fortunate to have known Rosie, (she always liked me to call her that) from the moment I met her I felt her great spirituality and love; she is as a light in the darkness. We shared a deep spiritual connection. We had a lot of fun having smokes out in back of Saturn where we met. She gave a motherly love to anyone who was open to it.

After holidays we would share the times we'd had with our families and for you who were lucky enough to call her Aunt, you should know that she loved you as though you were her own children, she told me as much, not that she needed to, for the simple fact that her eyes twinkled whenever she spoke of you.

Last Saturday afternoon, Rosie came suddenly to mind as I was working around the house, I felt peaceful in that moment and thought nothing of it until I returned to work on Monday and got the news that she had passed. I am deeply sadned by her passing and have to keep stopping to cry.

There can be no words to ease your sadness but perhaps knowing that not just in your family, but wherever Rosie went into the world, her life meant something great and wonderful, the love she had for her family and the love she had for God and all of her great good deeds have not gone unnoticed and surely will not go unrewarded. IT IS IN DYING THAT WE ARE BORN TO ETERNAL LIFE. God sees you in your grieving and comforts you, and to Rosie, I love you and I WILL see you again.

“ Dear Arnie and Family,

There are always a few people you meet in life who are special and Rosie was one of them. We had great times in high school and in the years after. Since we moved from Michigan in 1964, we kept in touch with yearly letters. Last fall we were lucky enough to get together again and it felt like we were never apart. We'll cherish that time with her. Rest assured we will always remember that smile and laugh and she will always remain in our thoughts and prayers. Thanks, Arnie, for calling us. Our sympathy to you and your family.

“ To My Dear Szajna Family,

Blessed are those who hear with their hearts, for they have the gift of empathy. Blessed are those who in spite of being unfortable step forward to comfort the grieving for their presence shows inner strength. Blessed are they those who refrain from giving advice or platitudes, for their wisdom reminds the bereaved there are no answers to loss. Blessed are they who continue to call, visit, and send notes long after others have stopped, for they are living examples of compassion. Blessed are those who understand the timetable of grief and the fragility of bereavement, for they possess a gentle and loving heart.

BLESSED ARE THEY WHO MOURN - FOR THEY SHALL BE COMFORTED...

*With Love and Prayers - Rose Marie was one heck of a lady and such a blast for me to be around. I will miss her awful.

“ Dear Szajna Family,

Rose was my friend since 1967. Together we laughed, we cried, we cared, we shared. Rose was a true friend with a great sense of humor.

My prayers are with you at this time of sorrow.

“ Dearest Szajna Family,
I will always remember her to be so caring, and so darn funny. I know that she is up in heaven with Grandma Szajna playing cards and feeling no pain. She will be sadly missed I'm sure, but just remember one day we will all be together with them playing cards. I love all of you, Erika###imported-begin##Erika###imported-end##
