“ Barb,

I wish I had the words to ease your pain, but only time will do that. I just wanted let you to know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I hope you find comfort in the love of family and friends. I know it is not easy when God takes a loved one home and it is hard sometimes to believe that your mom is in a better place but she is in a place filled with love and free of pain. God Bless you.

*Love,
Sandy##imported-begin##Sandy Goins##imported-end##*

“ Barb and Elaine, you have been wonderful through your Mom's illnesses. She found comfort in having you care for her and was proud that you took care of her when she could no longer take care of herself. Laughter and a sense of humor got you by when tears of exhaustion were so close at times. Bless you for loving her so much, and peace be in your hearts when you are missing her. With love from Rosemary's Secret Friend...##imported-begin##Lucy Talbot##imported-end##
